

A LITTLE LACE

PERFECT PARTNER FOR THAT GORGEOUS WHITE GOWN

Start with a coat of milky pink, then trim a slice of a lacy appliqué for the tip using curved cuticle scissors, says nail guru Deborah Lippmann.

Master the New French Mani

The hottest nail trend gets a bridal upgrade

HINT OF GOLD

FOR EVENING SHIMMER

The secret to nailing this look? A nude lacquer with a matte finish and a very thin tip.

Sally Hansen Complete Salon Manicure in Wedding Glitters, $7.99.

SOMETHING BLUE

OH SO BRIDAL AND SUPER EASY

Yes, you can go navy. Even cobalt. But this pale-sky accent is soft and vintage pretty.

Base: Priti NYC Lacquer in Sweet Pea, $14. Accent: Zoya Nail Polish in Blu, $8.

COLOR-BLOCKING

POPPY HUES FOR MAJOR IMPACT

Want your pedi to complement your mani? Use just the base hue on toes.

Base: OPI Nail Lacquer in Thanks a Windmillion, $9. Accent: Deborah Lippmann Nail Lacquer in PYT, $17.

SUBTLE SPARKLE

SWEET AND EYE-CATCHING

A reverse riff on French, this look draws the eye to the base of the nail. "It's very fairy-tale princess," says Lippmann.

Base: Clinique A Different Nail Enamel in Sweet Tooth, $16. Accent: L'Oréal Paris Colour Riche Nail Lingerie in In With the New, $8.95.

SIDEWAYS

A VERTICAL WHITE TIP? TRÈS WITTY.

Who wouldn't love a mani starring a slimming side stripe that elongates your finger? So ring friendly.

Base: RGB Lavender Lacquer, $18. Accent: Deborah Lippmann Nail Lacquer in Amazing Grace, $17.

LE CLASSIQUE

Not into nail art? The original French mani is back in a big way too. To make it feel modern (and to avoid copying Snooki's look), opt for a short, rounded tip, use a very light pink or sheer nude as your base, and add just a sliver of white. Sally Hansen Salon French Manicure Pen Kit, $13.
